WASHINGTON WHOLESALE MARKETS
Flour-Continues dull and sales very limited.
Grain-Demand limited and all kinds duil.
Hay and Straw-Receipts small and demand guiet.

Butter—Under large receipts and very limited demand stocks are accumulating, and decided concessions are necessary to effect any sales, except for strictly choice, which is in fair demand. Reduction in prices, even, fails to stimulate trade, and the market is wholly lifeless.

Eggs—Receipts have not been so large in the past week, and we note more firmness and tone with the close of to-day's business.

Poultry—Receipts have improved, and prices are back to old sales; demand is fair for choice and all arrivals placed at quotations.

Green Fruits—Apples dull and market quiet. Dried Fruits—Receipts light and quiet. Vegetables—Stock large and generally dull. Live Stock—Offerings were large; extra cattle were in good sale at a slight advance over last week; caives are scarce and wanted at the advanced rates we quote to-day.

Pork—Receipts are improving and the market closes quiet; demand is best for light weights.
